

God is molding me to be a follower, I am the Potter and you are the clay – Sermon Outline

Jeremiah 18:1-6

This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2 "Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give you my message." 3 So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw him working at the wheel. 4 But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him. 5 Then the word of the LORD came to me: 6 "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?" declares the LORD. "Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.

In our message today our Lord would like to show you how he sees you, how he uses trials and situations in your life to make you more like Jesus and then for you to reflect on how much he truly loves you.

1. What are some of the ways the Lord has molded you in your life in the past, and now in the present? What are some ways you could pass along to others how the Lord has changed you.

2. Before God would give the message to Jeremiah what did he have to do?

3. The Potter has a singular purpose which is to transform the clay into _____ and God's purpose is the s_____.

4. The potter has several instruments to bring the clay to a place where is useable. In a spiritual sense explain what each does. How has God used these in your life?

- a. A shovel

- b. A Mallet

- c. The Wheel

- d. His hands

5. Even in the Potter's hand, things can still go terribly wrong. The fault is not with the Potter, but with the c_____.

6. Because his hand is resting on the vessel, the Potter knows instantly when a

_____.

7. Journey to the cross – Matthew 27:32-50 and Matthew 28:1-7.

8. What is the Lord telling you in today's message? What would he like you to do with what he has told you?
